COMMENTS No information presented to indicate that this was not a normal a/c observation. Flight, description and duration with this analysis consistent.

Gentlemen: In making this sighting I was strongly motivated to think of the object as a high flying jet, even though no sound and only one light. Perhaps it would be easier if this angle were checked out first.

I would appreciate hearing your evaluation if it would not be too much trouble.

Yours truly,
